

COCKTAILS

ACES HIGH 13
{Aquavit} Crisp & vegetal, with notes of a Scandinavian Holiday.

BIG POPPA 12
{Rum} A Hemingway's guide to Cuba. Subtle hints of David Hasselhoff.

CHERRY BOMB 10
{Gin} Cocoa, citrus, spice, fruit—all the flavor, all the time. Joan Jett recommends.

CRYSTAL CASTLES 13
{Mezcal} Sexy, but boozy AF, like desert herbs and motorcycle leather.

EASTERN PROMISES 10
{Gin} Cool melon and citrus—brisk and refreshing like a skinny dip in the Baltic.

GET LUCKY 11
{Irish Whiskey} One tastes good, two taste better, three make your pants seem less necessary.

GIMME DANGER 10
{Tequila} Chamomile, spice, one part naughty, two parts nice.

GOLDEN BROWN 11
{Amaro} Velvety and rich, nestled between dessert and the dancefloor.

JONNY DON'T BRUNCH 10
{Vodka} Because you ARE a good dancer

LEATHAL WEAPON 12
{Bourbon} Burnt corn with a honeyed edge—straight to the party, do not pass go.

NAÏVE MELODY 12
{Aperitif} Sunshine and apricot blossoms on an effervescent Milano veranda.

OLD MONEY 11
{Tequila} Earthen, creamy and steeped in lush tradition.

PARATROOPER 13
{Rhum} A lovers quarrel echoes over a Oaxacan mountain forest, as does their make up.

PROFESSOR PLUM 10
{Cognac} Notes of dried stone fruit give way to feelings of intellectual superiority.

STARRY NIGHT 10
{Aperitif} Dry, floral, anise, and ever-expanding enlightenment.

STREET 11
{Irish Whiskey} For the well-rounded lady or man-about-town—sweet, savory and bitter.

SUPERFREAK 11
{Gin} Rick James' dream date—smooth, supple and unapologetic.

TEENAGE DREAM 11
{Gin} Tropical dew and bitter-sweet drama in skin-tight jeans.
